2005

Dear Promising Sponsor,

Lend Your Hand would like to invite you to join our Corporate Sponsors Family. Any donations large or small, helps us give children around the world the education in life that they deserve.

Through effective and strategic community partnerships, Lend Your Hand's mission is to help children receive better educations by supporting disadvantaged schools and communities in the United States, the Caribbean and other countries. Lend Your Hand's specific objectives are to support disadvantaged schools, classrooms and deprived youth in general by supplying them with the proper supplies and/or financial contributions needed to help make learning a success.

Lend Your Hand also seeks to increase the knowledge of literary arts and raise motivation in today's youth by bringing in authors to share their work and talk with the children, one on one. These workshops are conducted on a regular basis. Different authors and types of books will be featured. By contributing to our children, we will aid in the empowerment of their instructors and schools.

Lend Your Hand, Inc., is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation, headquartered in Elk Grove, California. It was founded on June 15, 2004, by author and poet, Terry A O'Neal, who has always held the genuine desire to uplift youth.

We look forward to partnering with you to uplift our youth.

Sincerely,

Terry a O'Neal, President & Founder
